

Note to teacher:

This is designed to be used with the book "It Looked Like Spilled Milk." Have the children use white magnets to "make" clouds in the sky that look like something. Have the kids show what they made to everyone and talk about their "cloud" and what it looks like.