

Feed the Rabbit Game

To make rabbits-Print rabbit heads. Staple them to clear Solo brand clear plastic cups leaving the cup area open. Hot glue a cotton ball to the back for a tail. Make enough "rabbits" so everyone has one. Print, cut and laminate an appropriate amount of pages 2 and 3. Put the carrots in a bar pan (that will be the garden) Put the numbered cards upside down in a stack. To play, each child gets a rabbit. The first person picks a number card. Then they "pick" that many carrots out of the garden and feeds them to the rabbit. Play continues until all the carrots are "picked" out of the "garden". Players count their cards. The rabbit that ate the most carrots is the winner.
